Notes on Use

Prior to the hearing on the motion to determine competency, the court may order an evaluation (Form 323). If the examining psychiatrist, psychologist or mental health facility determines that further examination is necessary, then the juvenile may be committed for up to 60 days for examination (Form 324), and the hearing on the motion may be continued. For good cause shown the commitment may be extended for another 60 days (Form 324). A restatement of the statute as a flowchart which may assist in understanding the process is included in the Notes on Use accompanying Form 322.
