Notes on Use

This form is for use by the prosecutor when filing a motion requesting a hearing on an alleged violation of conditional release.

The statute provides that the officer supervising the juvenile offender's conditional release or, upon referral from such officer, the prosecutor may file a report with the court alleging the juvenile has failed to obey the specified conditions of release from a juvenile correctional facility for the third or subsequent time or has absconded from supervision. The report must describe the alleged violations and the juvenile's history of violations. The prosecutor may file a motion for hearing on the allegation, or the hearing may be on the court's own motion. K.S.A. 38-2375.
